DEFENDANT: SUSAN L. HARRIS
CASE NUMBER: 12-30226-02-GPM

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this Judgment and that remains unpaid at the time of supervised release, or during the term of probation.

Defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies. The defendant shall participate in credit counseling as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

Defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, which may include participation in treatment for anger management, domestic violence, cognitive skills, or other forms of therapy or counseling that may be recommended, as directed by the probation officer. This may include a mental health assessment and/or psychiatric evaluation. This may require participation in a medication regimen prescribed by a licensed practitioner, at the direction of the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered, based on a Court approved sliding fee scale as directed by the probation officer. The defendant's financial obligation shall never exceed the total cost of services rendered.

Defendant shall submit her person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, electronic communication and data storage device or media, vehicle, and any other property under her control to a search, conducted by any United States Probation Officer and such other law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release, without a warrant. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises and other property under the defendant's control may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
